After a lot of difficulties linked to problems with translation and its costs – it is a trilingual magazine- we could finally publish this issue. Following a tradition that started with the former issue, whose subject was The crisis of the couple consisting of publishing regional colloquiums organized by different associations belonging to the International Association of couple and family psychoanalysis, we now publish the Lisbon colloquium” which took place in 2013 and whose topic was the dreams. We would like to thank Maria Manuela Porto, colloquium organizer, for her work, perseverance and tenacity at carrying out this work, as well as for the availability she offered us throughout the time in which we produced this issue. We would also like to express our gratitude to the authors who cooperated with us in the corrections of the articles and the changes we sometimes suggested. Finally, we wish to thank our evaluators, who kindly respond to our evaluation requests about several articles that we ask for at the same time, without which, this publication work would not be possible. We wish our readers a pleasant reading.
